Kort præsentation

Min forskning undersøger hvordan billeder af vold bliver til og hvordan de bruges til at etablere sandheder og narrativer i juridiske, journalistiske, aktivistiske, historiske og andre sammenhænge. Jeg er blandt andet interesseret i hvordan billeders betydning ændrer sig over tid og hvordan de er med til at etablere relationer mellem mennesker, specielt i forhold til menneskerettigheder og retfærdighedsprocesser. Jeg samarbejder med en række civilsamfundsorganisationer, der på forskellige måder arbejder med billeder fra krig og konflikter.

Jeg er uddannet antropolog fra Københavns Universitet (2009). Jeg er specialiseret i Mellemøsten og har udført etnografiske feltarbejder i Egypten, Syrien og Europa.

Jeg leder projektet Views of Violence: Images as Documentary, Evidentiary and Affective (Sapere Aude 2023-26) og deltager i Archiving the Future: Re-Collections of Syria in War and Peace (Sapere Aude 2020-24, PI: Andreas Bandak). Jeg står endvidere for Sensory Media Anthropology (finansieret af et NOS-HS Exploratory Workshop grant, 2022-23) sammen med Meri Kytö (University of Turku) og Niamh Ní Bhroin (University of Agder). Jeg er chair for e-seminarrækken under Media Anthropology Network of the European Association of Social Anthropologists (EASA). Desuden er jeg medgrundlægger og co-convenor af EASAs Sensory Media Anthropology Network.
